

Judge and Mrs. Tash will leave Thursday for an auto trip, of about a month's duration, the first vacation of the judge in eight years. They plan to drive via the Lincoln highway to central Iowa, then proceed north to Hampton, where they will visit with their daughter, Mrs. Johnson. They plan to spend about two weeks in Hampton, after which they will go south to Union county, their former home, and still the place of residence of a number of relatives. They will visit there for about a week after which they will return home. William Mounts, clerk of the district court, will accompany Judge and Mrs. Tash most of the way, but will drive straight through to Chicago, where they will visit for a time. Judge James H. H. Hewitt will act as deputy county judge during Judge Tash's absence.

A number of friends entertained at the Parish house Thursday evening in honor of Miss Irene Rice, who will leave for France, July 10. This was a farewell party. The hostesses were Mesdames H. E. Gantz, D. C. Bradbury, Percy Cogswell, H. E. Reddish and James Burlington. The evening was spent at Monte Carlo, which, after which a two-course lunch was served. Carnations were used as decorations. Those present were Mesdames George Madson, Bruce Mallory, Dewey Donovan, W. L. O'Keefe, George Mintzer, B. G. Beckwith, Ethel Churchill, William Mitchell, E. V. Black, R. L. Johnston, Lyle Anderson, R. O. Reddish, Clarence Schaffer, M. A. Dickenson and Miss Mabel Young, and Mrs. Smith of Denver, Mrs. Erickson of Lead, S. D., who are in Alliance visiting Mrs. H. E. Reddish.

One of the happiest meetings of the season was held by the Noble Band club Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Minnie Sward on Platte avenue. After roll call Mr. Carl Sward entertained with Edison records of "Poet and Peasant," overture, "Whispering Hope" and a Yodel song which were much appreciated. An interesting letter was read written to the club by Grandma Barkhurst from her home in Denver, 4140 Vallejo street, which was responded to by a rising vote of thanks. A general discussion followed as to "How Shall We Vote." Then came a delicious two-course lunch served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Clifford Sward. Those present were the Mesdames John Nation, Tom Roberts, N. T. Shawver, J. C. Hawkins, Thomas Ackerman, S. O. Carr, A. D. Rodgers, P. D. Roberts and Frank Beeson. The club convenes in two weeks with Mrs. J. W. DeMoss.

Miss Anna Thompson of Lewiston, Mont., who has been in Alliance for the past two weeks, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Thompson, will return to her home tomorrow.

The Rural Woman's club was entertained Thursday at the home of Mrs. L. J. Schill, with Mrs. Herman Traber as assistant hostess. Fifty members and guests were present. The annual children's day program was held with the program as follows: Reading, Florence Judavine; reading, Elnora Beal; piano solo, Velma Lee; vocal solo, Myrtle Judavine; reading, Margaret Schill; pianologue, Eva Miriam Harris; piano duet, Katherine Beal and Borene Powell; vocal solo, Miriam Harris, accompanied by Marshall Drake. Refreshments were served and the club adjourned to meet in three weeks at the home of Mrs. Parsley, with Mrs. Etta Beal assistant hostess.

Mrs. Bernice Myers returned Tuesday from a visit with her son, T. W. Myers, at Interior, S. D. Mr. Myers is the owner of a 320-acre farm five miles south of Interior, and Mrs. Myers brought back with her some small branches of plums, currants and other fruits which are literally loaded with fruit. Prospects were never brighter for a splendid crop. Mr. Myers' place is well improved and has a number of natural advantages, one of which is the presence of no less than twenty-five springs.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Hirst and family returned Thursday from a three weeks' visit in Tipton and Eldorado, Mo. Mr. Hirst says that he found the best roads of the trip in Nebraska, but the worst stretch between here and Angola.

Ever H. Ballock and Miss Carol Lausley, both of Alliance, were married by County Judge E. S. De La-Matter of Scottsbluff county Monday afternoon. The ceremony, according to Scottsbluff newspapers, was the 920th performed by the judge in the thirty-six years he has lived there. The couple are well known in Alliance.

Mrs. C. H. Hurst and daughter, Dorothy, left Wednesday for Omaha, where they will visit for a time with friends. Mrs. Hurst will return in a few days while Dorothy will remain there for some time.

Miss Marie Kibble left the first of the week for Greeley, Col., where she will attend summer school. Miss Kibble taught last year in the Morrill schools and will take special work.

Judge Tash issued a marriage license Thursday to Russell Cox, and Opal Roberts, both of Hemingford. Rev. Cox, father of the groom performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Harry Sims and daughter, Betty, who has been visiting with relatives in Aurora for the past month returned to Alliance yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Harris will entertain Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jones, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Feagins at dinner this evening.
